OBJECTIVE

I am a first-year college student and will transfer to a four-year university to pursue a computer science degree in the Fall of 2022. Due to having a significant number of AP test credits and a rigorous course load, I will complete my general education requirements by the end of this academic year (Spring 2022). I am seeking an internship for the Summer of 2022 to gain experience and help prepare me for my future career in software engineering.
